Distribution on 20 December 2017

SEB ImmoInvest made its 13th distribution in the amount of EUR 3.10 per unit on 20 December 2017.

The payout was made on 20 December 2017. The custodians will need time to process the payout, therefore the amount paid out will be credited to investors some bank working days after 20 December 2017.

As of 20 December 2017, Fund assets were EUR 1,017.3 million, while liquidity totalled EUR 281.6 million (27.7%).

The liquidity reserves are needed to pay the costs and expenses associated with further sales and with the orderly management of the assets held by the Fund.

Investors resident in Germany will be receiving 99.9 per cent of the distributed amount of EUR 3.10 after the lump sum income tax deduction of 25% plus solidarity surcharge, 26.375% in total.

Investors which are not resident in Germany (Foreign Investors) will be receiving 100.00 per cent or EUR 3.10 of the distribution. This time the distribution doesn't contain any amounts liable to German withholding tax. Whether or not this amount will be subject to income taxation in the country of residency depends on the local rules. In general German withholding tax of 25% plus solidarity surcharge (26.375% in total) is levied on the Funds net rental earnings and capital gains from German properties as well as on the dividends received from German property holding corporations.

The information concerning taxation is based on the legal position in Germany as it is known to stand at present. No assurance can be given that the tax treatment will not change as a result of legislation, court rulings, or decrees issued by the tax authorities. The information concerning taxation does not claim to be exhaustive and is not a substitute for tax advice.

Please contact your tax advisor for information about any tax assessments in the investor's country of residence. Savills Fund Management GmbH assumes no liability for key tax data for investors not subject to tax in Germany.
